Canning Cross, London, SE5 8BH

£785,000

A very well presented, modern mews house, located near Denmark Hill Station and Camberwell Grove. In a secluded cul-de-sac, with architecturally interesting properties. The house is over three floors and has three double bedrooms, the master has an en-suite bathroom. Solid wood flooring, well equipped kitchen with an 'island' and space for a dining table. Double doors leading out to a small patio area. A great Freehold house, in a popular location. Very convenient location with excellent transport, very close to Kings College Hospital, Ruskin Park, Lordship Lane shops, bars and restaurants. Peckham Rye nightlife and a local superstore. Offered chain free.
