Finsen Road, Ruskin Park, London, SE5 9AX

£1,200,000

This beautifully maintained original Edwardian Semi-detached house overlooks Ruskin Park on a very quiet road. It has outstanding views, beautifully proportioned rooms, original features and lots of natural light. There are four bedrooms, three reception rooms and a side extension used as a utility room and garden store. Its charming kitchen leads into the dining room with space for an A GA range. 2 large loft spaces ideal for converting STPP. Pretty well-stocked gardens front and rear. Finsen Road is a highly sought-after road with a terrific community. Walking distance to Denmark Hill Station and Kings College Hospital as well as to Loughborough Junction station and good buses. Ruskin Park has tennis courts, paddling pool, playground summer bandstand concerts and fetes. A well-loved family home.
